WHO YOU SUPPORT

Founded in 1973, She Leads Justice, formerly known as the Connecticut Women's Education and Legal Fund, is the oldest women's rights organization in Connecticut. We have spent over 50 years uplifting women's voices and giving each woman access to justice by removing obstacles realtime, building power, and creating a better future. Because when we center women, our communities win.

Using a justice and equity lens, She Leads Justice advocates for under-resourced, marginalized women in Connecticut. We work to close the civil legal justice gap, to organize communities for change, and to create state policy for economic security.

Our work supports women who identify as cisgender and transgender, and non-binary individuals, as well as people of all marginalized gender identities systemically and historically oppressed by those in power.

SHE LEADS JUSTICE presents the

CONSTANCE
BAKER
MOTLEY
AWARD

The 2025 Constance Baker Motley Award honors Chief Mutáwi Mutáhash (Many Hearts) Marilynn "Lynn" Malerba, a remarkable Native American woman and 18th Chief of the Mohegan Tribe, a lifetime appointment. She recently served as the 45th Treasurer of the United States from 2022 to 2024. Her unwavering commitment to public service and the well-being of Native communities exemplifies the strength and progress of women's leadership. Chief Malerba's path continues to inspire young women to step into leadership, advocate for their communities, and expand Native representation across all levels of government and public life. This award honors women in our state who embody the values and vision Constance Baker Motley left us to carry forward.
